

WARM INVITATION to a workshop

Do you have roots in one or more of the following countries?

Former Yugoslavia, Mozambique, Ethiopia, Tanzania, Ghana, Guinea, Egypt and Sudan

Are you interested in history, politics, film and exchange?

Come to the workshop of the NON-ALIGNED NEWSREELS project and give film material from an archive a voice from the present!

On Sunday, 19 October 2025, 12-5pm at Hoch X Theater and Live Art

Images from film footage shot by Stevan Labudović for the FLN during the Algerian War of Independence.

The NON-ALIGNED NEWSREELS project brings together works, images and archive material of decolonisation and freedom movements of the past and the present.

Filmmaker Mila Turajlić offers a glimpse into extraordinary archives: films shot by Yugoslav cameraman Stevan Labudović in Africa and Asia.

The workshop delve into these archives, comments on them and revives them through storytelling.

You are invited to share personal stories and memories of the Non-Aligned Movement, as well as to explore new political ideas for the future and give this filmed history a new voice.

The workshop will be filmed and integrated into a future video installation.
